Instructions for the scholarship application

If your application and income statement are not correctly filled in and if required enclosures are missing your application will as a result be considered last of all. Be thorough!

- Carefully read through the instructions in the scholarship manual and at the home page: www.v-dala.se
- Carefully read through the regulations for the scholarships which you intend to apply for and only apply for the scholarships where you comply with mandatory requirements.
- All Nation scholarships are applied for on a common form if not otherwise is prescribed in the scholarship manual.
- Qualification and possible priority have to be proved in suitable manner, for example by birth certificate, certificate from gymnasium (upper secondary school) or other certificates.
- As grown up counts that you have resided in the locality in question for at least 6 years before "gymnasieexamen" (upper secondary school certificate), at most until the applicant has reached the age of 20. If the applicant is born in the locality but has a certificate from gymnasium (upper secondary school) from another locality he/she should specify in the application which periods he/she has resided in the locality of growing up in question. If these statements are not enclosed/proved the person is NOT considered grown up there. Such a certificate can be obtained from the Swedish Tax Agency's national registration register through e-mail or telephone and must be signed or stamped by the Swedish Tax Agency.
- All enclosed documents which are copies must be attested by two persons (signature, clarification of signature and telephone number). All study merits, registration certificate for the current term, receipt of paid term fee and confidential income statement must be enclosed to the application.

- The application and the income statement must be signed.
- Write clearly in ink.
- Check which application papers you need and send in the application in good time. We do not accept complementary additions after the last application date
